THE COURT FINDS that under the laws of Maryland the issuing court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter. The respondent was given reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard at a protective order hearing.

THE COURT ORDERS:

That the above named respondent SHALL NOT abuse, threaten to abuse, and/or harass the petitioner and others to be protected.

☐ The above named respondent SHALL NOT contact the protected parties by any means, except as stated in this order.

Additional terms of the order are as set forth in this document.

The terms of this Order shall be effective through 08/21/2020 at 11:59 PM.

Only the court can change this order.

NOTICE TO RESPONDENT: PENALTIES

A violation of a Final Protective Order is a crime and law enforcement shall arrest the respondent, with or without a warrant, and take the respondent into custody if the officer has probable cause to believe that the respondent has violated any provision of the Interim, Temporary, or Final Protective Order. Violation of this order may result in criminal prosecution, imprisonment or fine or both, or a finding of contempt. In accordance with Maryland Code, Family Law Article § 4-506(f), no respondent against whom a current final civil protective order has been entered may possess any firearm. This Protective Order shall be recognized and enforced by the courts of any state, the District of Columbia, any U.S. Territory, tribal lands (18 U.S.C. § 2265) or Department of Defense installations (10 U.S.C. § 1561a). Crossing state, territorial, or tribal boundaries to violate this Order may result in federal imprisonment (18 U.S.C. § 2262).

Federal law provides penalties of up to $250,000 fine and 10 years in prison for possessing, transporting, shipping, or receiving any firearm or ammunition while subject to a protective order or after being convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence (18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8) and (9) or knowingly transferring a firearm after a conviction of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence (18 U.S.C. § 922(d)(9)).
